

Interview Questions for A Christmas Homecoming by MaryAnn Diorio

QUESTION 1:

What is A CHRISTMAS HOMECOMING about?

QUESTION 2:

How would you define forgiveness?

QUESTION 3:

How often must we forgive?

QUESTION 4:

Does forgiving mean that I am letting the person who hurt me off the hook?

QUESTION 5:

When I forgive, am I condoning sin?

QUESTION 6:

Is there any sin against me that I am not required to forgive?

QUESTION 7:

Am I commanded to forgive even if the person who hurt me doesn't ask me to forgive him, or if the person who hurt me is not sorry for what he did?

QUESTION 8:

Must I still forgive if a person continues to hurt me?

QUESTION 9:

Does forgiving mean that I have to remain in an abusive situation?

QUESTION 10:

How do I forgive?

QUESTION 11:

What if I don't want to forgive?

QUESTION 12:

What if I refuse to forgive?

QUESTION 13:

How soon after I am hurt do I have to forgive?

QUESTION 14:

Does forgiving mean forgetting?

QUESTION 15:

What about the person who hurt me What happens to him? Does he get away without punishment?

QUESTION 16:

How do I know if I have truly forgiven?

QUESTION 17:

Your book, A CHRISTMAS HOMECOMING, is about forgiveness. Why is forgiveness so important to you?

QUESTION 18:

What other thoughts would you like your reader to take away from reading your book?

QUESTION 19:

For whom did you write this book?

QUESTION 20:

What is your next book project?